

Afton Capital Partners

Afton Capital Partners (“ACP”) is an operator-led investment firm looking to acquire, grow, and operate a single small to medium-sized business. After acquiring the company, the two founders, Mark Turner and Zack Peckham, will relocate and operate the business on a full-time basis, enabling a full or partial owner transition.

Seller Benefits

Prompt, confidential, and professional deal making

Full or partial owner transition / retirement

Flexible partnership with two fully-committed managers

Long-term commitment to employees and continued legacy

Mark Turner

- Led Corporate Development for Behavioral Health Group, an addiction treatment services provider; personally sourced and completed multiple transactions
- Headed the multi-disciplined team responsible for siting and opening BHG’s first greenfield facility
- Worked on-site with several management teams
- Began career in consulting and principal investing
- Edu: Southern Methodist Univ., Univ. of Pennsylvania

Zack Peckham

- Worked in the Small Business Fund group of AEA Investors, investing in business services companies; attended quarterly board meetings of 5 companies
- On-site portfolio company role directly under CEO /CFO, working alongside entirety of employee group
- Consulted with numerous small growing businesses
- Began career in investment banking
- Edu: Univ. of Texas, Univ. of Pennsylvania, CPA

Acquisition Criteria

Owner Transition | U.S. Based | Growing Industry | Stable, $5M+ Revenue | $1-$5M Profit | 10%+ Margins
Business Services | Healthcare Services | Tech-enabled Services

Our Team

We are backed by a sophisticated and diverse group of individual and institutional investors, many of whom are business owners and operators themselves. Our team offers experience and expertise across a variety of industries and can be instrumental in aiding the management, development, and growth of the acquired business.